RightRisk Featured on ABC TAS Country Hour

Laurissa Smith of the ABC interviewed President Trevor Atkinson, organizer David Armstrong and several other delegates attending the Congress in Launceston, Tasmania. Included among them was John Hewlett, University of Wyoming Ranch/Farm Management Specialist and RightRisk Team member.

RightRisk members also offered two papers and two posters via concurrent session offered throughout the IFMA Congress.

Titles include:

- Ag Help Wanted: Guidelines for Managing Agricultural Labor. John P. Hewlett*, Jeffrey E. Tranel*, and Trent Teegerstrom.
- Enterprise Risk Analysis. John P. Hewlett* and Jay Parsons*.
- Reaching Underserved Agricultural Operators in America's West Through a Conference Series. Cole Ehmke and John P. Hewlett*.
- Successful Succession Planning Through Effective Family Communications. Jeffrey E. Tranel*, John P. Hewlett*, and Vanessa Tranel.

* RightRisk members.

In addition to participating in keynote presentations and interacting with producers, farm advisors and academicians from around the world, participants also enjoyed two days of Field Tours: opportunities to visit farms and ranches in Tasmania to learn more about the management of their enterprises and issues they face.
