

Enterprise Analytics: Transforming Records into Results

Monday, Feb. 24, 6-8:30 p.m.

Delta Career Advancement Center classroom
1696 N. Clearwater Ave., Delta Junction

Designed for
Farmers and Ranchers

Join us for this free in-person workshop led by RightRisk's economist Jeff Tranel, management economist, and John Hewlett, farm/ranch management specialist. The goal of the Enterprise Analytics workshop is to equip farm and ranch managers with the tools and knowledge to effectively monitor and manage resource flows and enterprise performance. By leveraging recordkeeping and financial analysis, participants gain insights into:

- cost structures
- profitability
- financial consequences of operational decisions

You will learn to identify and address potential challenges, optimize resource allocation and improve your overall enterprise profitability.
