

RightRisk.org

Understanding Financial Performance an online course from RightRisk

Getting On Track: Understanding Financial Performance

Getting On Track: Understanding Financial Performance is a two-hour, internet-based course including: What is financial analysis?, Measures of liquidity, Measures of solvency, Measures of profitability, Measures of financial efficiency, Measures of repayment capacity, and Where do I go from here?

A glossary, frequently asked questions, and resource links are provided, along with example records systems and much more.

The Understanding Financial Performance course is available free of charge at RightRisk.org > Courses.

Measures of Liquidity

The Current Ratio

Measures of Solvency

Solvency Ratio Benchmarks

Table with Solvency Benchmarks: Debt/Asset and Equity/Asset ratios categorized as Low, Moderate, and High.

Possible Actions For Improvement: Increase operating profits, make additional principal payments on term debt

Measures of Profitability

Calculate the Return on Assets

Step-by-step guide to calculating Return on Assets with a screenshot of a financial statement and the calculation: 14,741 + 2,640 = 17,381

How Much Risk is Right for You and Your Operation?